Hi Kev

it is unclear to me if visiting [REDACTED] would be helpful or otherwise. I suggest giving the adolescent unit a call [REDACTED] and speaking to Robin Counsel the Nurse Unit Manager would be very helpful. She is very wise and could give you advice about what would be most appropriate.

I don't work in the unit, I am with outpatient services so I am removed from this.

I am very saddened by the way the whole process is being handled.

Please give Robin a call

kind regards
James

The teaching staff were greatly surprised to return this week and find that [REDACTED] has been transferred to [REDACTED] could easily assume that [REDACTED] has been abandoned by everyone who has had any part in [REDACTED] life.

[REDACTED] Now from us.

The new consultant here has indicated that [REDACTED] won't be back. There is a big push to transition all the adolescents here by the end of the year. The rhetoric says adolescents will be transitioned to appropriate services but I don't know where they are.

I would like to visit [REDACTED] teacher here to let [REDACTED] know we are still thinking of [REDACTED] and wish [REDACTED] well for the future. I am seeking your counsel as to whether you feel this is appropriate. If it is just meeting our needs rather than [REDACTED] at this time it may well not be okay.

Kindest regards

Kev
